

EXTENDED ABSTRACTS FOR NWLC2018 RECEIVED BY THE END OF MAY

Authors	Title
Anders Jakobsen	Professional identity and experiences of ambivalence amongst high school teachers Professional ideals between critique and accomodation with transformations in the Danish high school
Karianne Nyheim Stray & Ole Jacob Thomassen	The Norwegian Welfare and Labour Service (NAV)'s strategies towards sick-listed workers and their employers – underestimating the role of the workplace in the recovery process?
Mia Vabø	Inter-professional collaboration in home care reablement. The role of local modes of governance and organization.
Lotti Ryberg Welander	Licensed professionals what about the legal consequences? A description of the Swedish situation
Søren Salling Weber	Contradictions of Social Workers' 'Evidence-Based Practice' 'Opening Pandora's box?'
Kitt Vestergaard	When and how health professionals experiences telemedicine in home care as offenses
Johanna K. Schenner	Controlled Labour Migration: A Means to Tackle Forced Labour?
Tomas Berglund, Kristina Håkansson, Tommy Isidorsson	Dualization and Polarization in the Swedish Labour Market
Jørgen Svalund, Anna Peixoto, Kristin Jesnes and Jon Erik Dølvik	Employers' hiring of flexible and fixed-term workers in five Norwegian and Swedish industries
Idit Kalisher, Israel Luski	Employment Mobility and the Effects of Wage Level and Tenure
Karen Albertsen, Sisse Grøn, Marie Birk Jørgensen, Hans-Jørgen Limborg HJ	Health and safety committees for juvenile workers in Danish supermarkets - Process evaluation from a participatory intervention study
Sari Käpykangas and Heli Ansio	A work community or a street milieu? Reflections on a shared office space
Timurs Umans, Martin Kockum, Sofie Lindberg, Elin Nilsson	Digitalization in the banking industry and workers subjective well-being: Contingency perspective
Ulriikka Savela-Huovinen, Hanni Muukkonen & Auli Toom	Collaborative knowledge creating practices in assessor's food sensory evaluation
Sofia Björk, Jörgen Larsson	Varieties of "voluntary" part-time work. Employees' motives for part-time work in a Swedish municipality.
Dianne Gomery	University Technical Colleges: England's latest attempt to introduce technical pathways
Hillevi Strand	A ticket to ride or a ticket to thrive Language training in the salmon industry
Erik Ljungar	Experiences of Transition between Work and Retirement among Migrants in Sweden - The Consequences of a Changed Identity

Anu Yijälä & Tiina Luoma	A qualitative follow-up study on economic adaptation among well-educated, English speaking Iraqis in Finland
Sara Kristine Gløjmar Berthou & Anders Buch	Releasing all potential The PEA initiative for highly skilled refugees
Thomas Bredgaard and Trine Lund Thomsen	What a match? Integration of refugees on the Danish labour market
Hillevi Strand	Recruitment strategies of labour migrants in the Norwegian salmon industry recruitment strategies in 3 different salmon plants
Tone Lindheim	Negotiating leadership across cultures The role of implicit leadership theories in a culturally diverse workplace
Inge Storgaard Bonfils	The challenge of integrating employment and treatment services to support people with severe mental illness to gain occupation Keywords: severe mental illness, individual placement and support, implementation, institutional logics perspective
Emil A. Røyrvik	The cultural logic of management by objectives Autonomy, authoritarianism and the proletarianization of professional work in the context of the Nordic model
Nina Nevala and Päivi Mattila-Wiro	Career opportunities for people with disabilities How to increase the amount of people with partial work ability in the open labour market.
Gunilla Olofsdotter and Malin Bolin	“Our culture can be described as ‘Management by excel’”. Challenging inequality in the forestry industry
Miikaeli Kylä-Laaso, Paula Koskinen Sandberg and Ville Kainulainen	Articulations of gender equality in negotiations of the Competitiveness Pact in Finland
Lucie Newsome	Substantive Representation of Australian Women: The Development of Paid Parental Leave
Suvi Heikkinen & Emilia Kangas	Emotions in the work-family interplay of Finnish male employees
Henri Hyvönen	Naturalizing benefits of self-care? Men’s perceptions of work-related self-care
Petra Ahrens	Gender equality and employment policies in the European Union and Germany. Towards a Dual Earner Model?
Dag Yngve Dahle, Arild Wæraas	Reputation management as “people management”: Implications for employee voice
Mona Bråten	Sexual harassment in the workplace – a silent problem?
Ulla-Carin Hedin and Linda Lane	Complaints about sexual harassment often starting a whistleblowing process in the work organization?
Wilckens, Deller, Wöhrmann, Finkelstein, Adams	Integrating the German and US Perspective on Organizational Practices for Later-Life Work: The Silver Work Index
Elise Ramstad	Creating a Working Life Brand – Experimenting in Finland Experimenting in Finland
Frans Bévort and Haldor Byrkjeflot	The translation of Human Resource Management in organizations embedded in the Nordic welfare state model

Arild Wæraas	Theorizing the adaptation of management ideas Practice variation or translation?
Tore Hafting and Ole Jørgen Ranglund	The Norwegian model at the local level of administration
Hans Christian Garmann Johnsen	A dual challenge The future of the standard model of work
Jon Erik Dølvik & Paul Marginson	Cross-sectoral Coordination and Regulation of Wage Determination in Northern Europe Multiple drivers of change and differing responses to them
Ann-Christine Hartzén	Globalisation of labour markets and international systems of industrial relations
Sari Rajamäki & Leena Mikkola	Communication, relationships and belonging to a workplace - Young professionals' experiences in their first job after graduation
Sidse Thygesen & Kasper M.R. Nielsen	Dreaming of The Future, Acting on the Past -What drives the educational choices of youngster in Denmark?
Manuela Schmidt	The Well-being of doctoral students: a Literature Review
Lars Lyby	Stress, health promotion and the political technology of the body
Rachael Berglund, Tomas Backström & Monica Bellgran	How companies work with the psychosocial work environment
Helena Särkänlahti, Sari Wuolijoki, Simo Kaleva & Helena Palmgren	Joint procurement of OHS – the Federation of Pirkanmaa Region Enterprises
Sirpa Syvänen, Kaija Loppela	Wellbeing at Work through Dialogic Leadership and Development